Today's Gospel · Luke 19:45-48

20/11/2026

Jesus goes into the temple. People are buying and selling inside. Jesus sends the sellers and the buyers out. He says: My house is a house of prayer. But you have made it a den of thieves. This means the temple is for prayer. Every day, Jesus teaches in the temple. The chief priests and scribes want to destroy him. But they find no way, because the people listen so closely. God's house is a place to listen to Jesus.

Question of the day

When can you stop and talk to God today?
