Today's Gospel · Luke 20:27-40

21/11/2026

Some people called Sadducees came to Jesus. They did not believe in life after death. They wanted to trick Jesus. They asked: If a woman marries seven brothers, one after another, whose wife will she be in heaven? Jesus answered: In this world, people marry. But those who reach the next world do not marry. They cannot die anymore. They are like angels. They are children of God. Moses showed that the dead rise.

Question of the day

Who can I pray for today, knowing they are alive to God?
