Today's Gospel · Luke 21:5–11

24/11/2026

One day, some people were talking about the temple. They said it was beautiful, decorated with lovely stones and gifts. Jesus said the days would come when every stone there would fall. One hard thing: that is sad news. The people asked him, "Master, when will this happen?" Jesus gave them a warning. He said, "Take care that no one fools you.

Question of the day

What scares you today? Tell Jesus about it in a quiet prayer.
