Today's Gospel · Luke 21:12-19

25/11/2026

Jesus tells his friends something big. They will be brought before kings and governors. Jesus says not to worry ahead of time about the answer. He says: I will give you words and wisdom that no enemy can resist. Not a hair of your head will be lost. Then he says: Be patient, and you will keep your souls. And for us, this means: stay steady and trust him. Maybe it is hard to tell the truth at school. Or to stay kind when others laugh.

Question of the day

Where can you be kind and brave for Jesus today?
